

Obligatory medical insurance of foreign citizens and stateless persons temporary staying or living in the Republic of Belarus

According to the legislation of the Republic of Belarus foreign citizens temporary staying or living in the territory of the Republic of Belarus, are to have an obligatory medical insurance agreement or a medical insurance agreement concluded with a foreign insurance company in case of providing them with urgent medical aid.

An obligatory medical insurance agreement can be concluded by a foreigner at any border entry point (at the international airports or border checkpoints).

Persons (legal entities, citizens of the Republic of Belarus, foreign citizens legally staying in the Republic of Belarus) inviting foreigners to the Republic of Belarus have also a right to conclude an obligatory medical insurance agreement in favor of a foreign citizen.

One has to contact the insurer and inform him/her on the surname, name and patronymic name (if available) of a person in favor of who an agreement is concluded, permanent residence, citizenship, the period of staying in the Republic of Belarus in order to conclude the obligatory medical insurance agreement.

The term of obligatory medical insurance agreement is determined on the basis of the period of staying or temporary accommodation of a foreign citizen in the Republic of Belarus and is indicated in the certificate of insurance.

Payment of insurance premium shall be made as a lumpsum payment in Belarusian rubles, freely convertible currency or Russian rubles.

The insurance amount of an obligatory medical insurance of foreign citizens and stateless persons temporary staying or living in the Republic of Belarus is € 10 000.
